NEED TO ADDRESS EXISTING ISSUES IN EDUCATION: PROF VARUN SAHANI

BY A STAFF REPORTER
reporters@goatimes.com

Panaji: Goa University vice chancellor Prof Varun Sahani inaugurated the two-day national conference on 'Strategies for success in higher education: An interdisciplinary perspective' sponsored by the Indian Council of Social Science Research (ICSSR) at the Nirmala Institute of Education on Friday.

"We must understand the importance of the education system in order to aim for success in higher education considering the input and output indicators," Prof Sahni said.

Discussing about the current education scenario in different sectors at various levels and its success rate, Prof Sahni said, "There is a need to address the existing issues in education such as competitive pressures and employment concerns."

"One should see education more as a value rather than just an instrument," Prof Sahani said.

Nirmala Institute of Education officiating principal Dr Delia Antao briefed the audience about the contributions made in the field of education by the Nirmala Institute of Education. She wished the participants an enriching experience through the sharing and exchange of ideas to move towards developing new paradigms for success in higher education.

"Teaching strategies alone cannot produce great and successful learners but the passion for knowledge, its interpretation and application is what mattered as well to produce successful learners," director of Nirmala Institute of Education Dr Rita Paes said. She appealed to the teachers to be real role models to their students and hoped that through this endeavour, many would find that passion, zeal and determination to make learning a challenging enterprise for the students.

Keynote speaker Dr Sushila Sawant Mendes highlighted the need to cultivate the habit of reading in students.

She said, "We need to cultivate a research culture among students as well the teachers."

Dr Mendes shared some of the strategies which are today the essence of her college in Quepem. She concluded by quoting Swami Vivekananda that education is not just instruction, but rather true upbringing.

Several papers were presented in the category of education, life skills and value education, library science, trust and credibility in work culture.

A panel discussion was held on 'Employability through Better Higher Education in India'. The panelists for the session was Dr Manoj Kamat, Dr Manasvi Kamat, Dr Harip Khanapuri, Rajeev Narvekar and Basil D'Cunha. The interaction between the panelists and the audience was rich and engaging.

Nirmala Education Society vice president Maria Fernandes, conference convenor Dr Maya Rodrigues and Nirmala Institute of Education associate professor Ximena Fonseca.
