reporter@goatimes.com

Panaji: Goa University vice chancellor Prof Varun Sahani inaugurated the two-day national conference on 'Strategies for success in higher education: An interdisciplinary perspective' sponsored by the Indian Council of Social Science Research (ICSSR) at the Nirmala Institute of Education on Friday.

"We must understand the importance of the education system in order to aim for success in higher education considering the input and output indicators," Prof Sahni said.

Discussing about the current education scenario in different sectors at various levels and its success rate, Prof Sahni said, "There is a need to address the existing issues in education such as competitive pressures and employment concerns."

"One should see education more as a value rather than just an instrument," Prof Sahani said.

Nirmala Institute of Education officiating principal Dr Della Antao briefed the audience about the contributions made in the field of education by the Nirmala Institute of Education. She wished the participants an enriching experience through the sharing and exchange of ideas to move towards developing new paradigms for success in higher education.

"Teaching strategies alone cannot produce great and successful learners but the passion for knowledge, its interpretation and application is what matters as well to produce successful learners," director of Nirmala Institute of Education Dr Rita Pais said. She appealed to the teachers to be real role models to their students and hoped that through this endeavour, many would find that passion, zeal and determination to make learning a challenging enterprise for the students.

Keynote speaker Dr Sushila Sawant Mendes highlighted the need to cultivate the habit of reading in students.

She said, "We need to cultivate a research culture among students as well the teachers."

Dr Mendes shared some of the strategies which are today the essence of her college in Quzem. She concluded by quoting Swami Vivekananda that education is not just instruction, but rather true upbringing.

Several papers were presented in the category of education, life skills and value education, library science, trust and credibility in work culture.

A panel discussion was held on 'Employability through Better Higher Education in India'. The panelists for the session was Dr Manoj Kamat, Dr Manavji Kamat, Dr Harip Khanapuri, Rajeev Narvekar and Basil D Cunha. The interaction between the panelists and the audience was rich and engaging.

REPORT ON THE PUPPETRY WORKSHOP

Nirmala Institute of Education, Altinho, Goa, in association with the National School of Drama, New Delhi, had organised a 3-day National Workshop on Puppetry for teachers and teacher trainees from 23rd August to 25th August 2021. The Workshop was conducted under the guidance of the Principal, Dr. Delia Antao; Ms. Suvarna Gauns, Associate Professor and the IQAC Co-ordinator and Ms. Anagha Deshpande, Assistant Professor and Workshop Co-ordinator. The objective of the workshop was to integrate theatre into subject pedagogies, in order to make the teaching-learning process more effective and enjoyable.

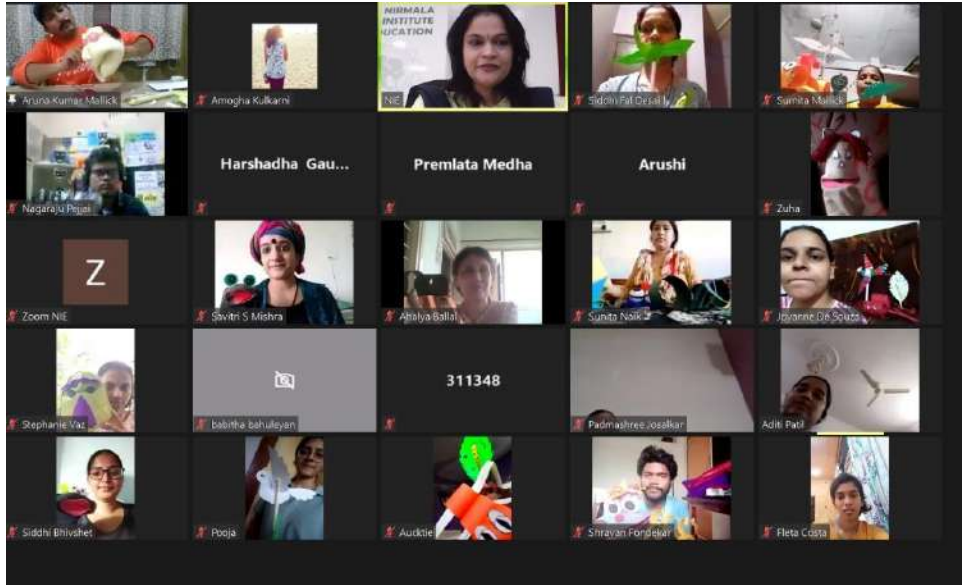

Mr. Arun Kumar Mallik, Assistant Professor at the National School of Drama, New Delhi, was the resource person for the workshop. He was formally welcomed by Ms. Suvarna Gauns on the first day. A variety of puppets such as shadow puppet, string puppet, rod puppet, finger and glove puppet, were introduced to the participants along with its history, highlighting the fact that puppets have been an integral component of Indian culture. The participants learned to create two types of hand puppets.

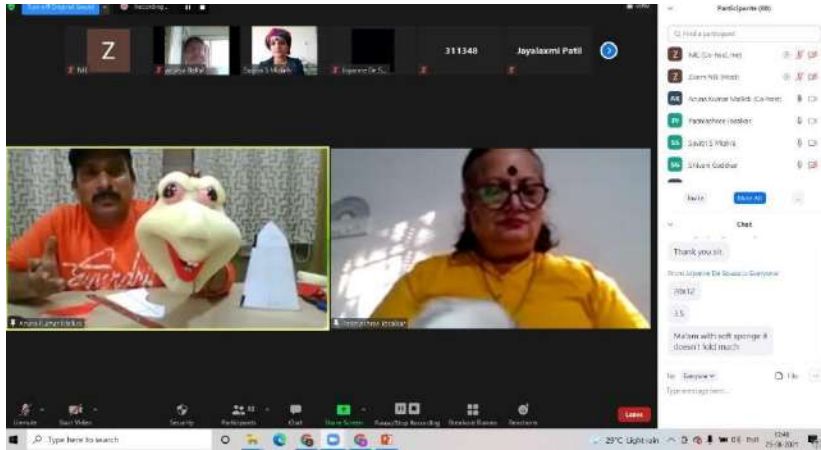

On the second day of the workshop, Mr. Mallik taught the participants to make various types of animal rod puppets that entailed an element of motion, which made these inanimate objects visually appealing and appear life-like.

The third day of the workshop concluded by demonstrating the making of a face puppet. The participants actively participated and sent photographs and videos of the puppets created. Mr. Mallik was encouraging and utilised easily available household items to create the puppets. In addition, he also suggested a list of alternate materials that could be utilised, hence increasing the participation.

The valedictory ceremony was held in presence of the Director of the National School of Drama, Mr. Dinesh Khanna, who was amazed by the quality of work accomplished through a 3-day virtual workshop and promised further collaboration with Nirmala Institute of Education.

A positive feedback was obtained from the participants, who were also delighted to receive participatory e-certificates.

Xavier Board of Higher Education, Western Region in association with Nirmala Institute of Education-Goa, organized an online workshop on 24th April 2022 for teachers and teacher trainees on Puppet Making and their use in enhancing the teaching- learning process. The workshop was held through a google meet platform from 3.00 p.m. -5.00 p.m. Sr Delia Antao, the officiating principal of Nirmala Institute of Education, welcomed the audience. Ms. Anagha Deshpande, Assistant Professor in Performing Arts at Nirmala Institute, gave a brief introduction to puppetry and its use in teaching.

There was a power point presentation through which the audience were shown four types of puppets: Glove puppet, shadow puppet, string puppet and Rod puppet. The audience were then shown a few video presentations of puppetry on how the teacher trainees from Nirmala Institute used puppets to teach different topics in six different pedagogies. The audience were thrilled to see how these beautiful puppets made by the S.Y. B. Ed teacher trainees conveyed messages and made teaching interesting. Teacher Trainee Maclina Furtado then introduced the spokesperson of the workshop, Mr. Arun Mallick Kumar. He then taught the audience how to make puppets by demonstrating it step by step. The audience were asked to get the required material much beforehand, this made it easier for them to follow up, observe and do their puppets simultaneously.

Sir Arun taught the audience to make different types of puppets using gloves and socks. He also demonstrated how to make a puppet bird, which was quite interesting. The audience actively participated in the workshop and were eager to learn more. They also requested the organizers to organize more such workshops in the future. The workshop came to an end with Ms. Gladys D'souza proposing the vote of thanks. It was indeed a fruitful experience to partake in this interesting and creative puppet making workshop.
