In addition to the general information mentioned at i to X above, the institution may highlight the following, if it so desired:

History of the Institution	The Nirmala Institute of Education, Goa was established in 1963 by the Society of the Daughters of the Heart of Mary (DHM). The Society was founded in 1790 during the French Revolution. The outstanding characteristic of the Society, has been its ability to quickly respond to the changing needs of society. It is this spirit of openness, that enabled the Society to accept the invitation of the then Archbishop of Goa, to establish a teacher-education institution, soon after the liberation of Goa in 1961. The Nirmala Institute of Education was the only Teacher Education Institute in Goa for almost three decades and has contributed immensely to the development of school education during a crucial period in this nascent State. The Institute provided a solid foundation for the educational growth of Goa, through trained teachers who were employed in the schools, that were increasing at a rapid pace. It trained and nurtured teachers to shape and serve the new educational system in the State of Goa.
Vision Statement	"The Nirmala Institute of Education endeavours to create a cadre of professionals committed to excellence, imbued with values and responsive to the emergent needs and challenges in the local, national and global context"
Mission and Objectives	OUR MISSION GOALS To help students discover and appreciate their unique vocation in society. To create a learning environment which integrates theory with practice. To nurture, in particular, the values of peace, justice, equality and fraternity. To enable students to understand and cater to the needs of a diverse student population. To encourage students to become catalysts of social transformation To revitalize education through partnership with different organisations and universities.
